Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of claims 1-14 in the reply filed on 10/18/06 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that claim 1 is generic. This is not found persuasive because the group of FIGS. 6,7, claims 15-18, relates to a shell system comprising first and second shell adapted to articulate with each other. The group of FIGS. 1-5, claims 1-14 relates to a shell single shell that articulates with fulcrum. Therefore, a fulcrum is not needed for the shells of the group of FIGS. 6,7 to articulate. Thus, claim 1 is not generic. The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,3-7,12,13,14,23-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Harrington (5,893,889).

With respect to claims 1, 27, Harrington discloses a disc replacement device comprising a shell (32), a fulcrum (46), wherein the fulcrum is a spherical ball bearing, having a substantially spherical surface; and a damping sleeve (54,68), as best seen in FIG. 2, wherein the shell comprises a first surface (69 or the flat surface of 69) adapted for articulation with the fulcrum the first surface having a first surface shape (the flat of 69) different from the spherical surface and a second surface adapted for coupling with the damping sleeve (at 56 in FIG.2); the first surface being separated from the second surface, as best seen in FIG.2.

With respect to claims 3-7,12,13,14,23-26, Harrington discloses all the limitations; as set forth in column 2, lines 55-67, column 3, lines 1-67, column 4, lines 1-50, and as best seen in FIG.2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8-11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Harrington (5,893,889).

With respect to the above claims, it is noted that Harrington did not teach the preferred material, as claimed by applicant. However, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use any of the preferred material, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In Leshin, 125 USPQ 416. Also see last office action for the use of these materials in the art.

Response to Amendment

Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, filed 10/18/06, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-14 under 102 have been fully considered and are persuasive.

Art Unit: 3733

Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Harrington.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
